Lidl GB is seeking views regarding a fresh proposal for a new store at Monks Cross shopping park in York.

Residents may recall that planning permission was granted for a new store at this site earlier in the year. Lidl has unveiled a brand-new store format which is more sustainable, includes a larger sales area, and delivers the shopping experience our customers deserve. This will require knocking down the former TK Maxx and Argos buildings, and these will be replaced by the new Lidl foodstore, and car parking.

A new planning application is required for this new and improved store, so we would like your views on our revised proposals.

Fresh plans

About the revised Lidl proposals

Planning permission was granted for a new Lidl store on this site earlier in 2023. Since then, our new, larger, and more sustainable store format has been unveiled. We want to provide York residents with the very best shopping experience so we will submit a fresh and slightly amended planning application.

The proposals include:

A new Lidl store built to our very latest specification, including modern in-store facilities like Lidl's popular bakery, a larger sales area, and customer toilets with baby changing facilities

Enhanced environmental features including solar panels on the roof and rapid electric vehicle chargers in the parking area. Lidl has an ongoing commitment to enhance the sustainability of its stores

Around 40 jobs for local people including full and part-time roles, with entry-level staff receiving Lidl's competitive £11.40 per hour starting pay

137 parking spaces including accessible and parent & child bays, as well as covered cycle parking

Landscaping across the site including tree planting and soft landscaping
